

TO SUCCEED MCCLAVE.

"Wicked" Gibbs May Be Named Upon His Resignation.

Kerwin and Raymond Also in the List of Possibilities.

Brynes Makes Some Observations Regarding the Weather.

Mayor Gilroy had not received Police Commissioner McClave's resignation up to noon today.

"I have not heard, directly or indirectly, from Mr. McClave," said he. "The Mayor would not discuss the position of the police chief. He has a statement published exclusively in 'The Evening World' yesterday that Mr. McClave would relinquish his office, or what bearing his action would have on the investigation of accused police officials by the Police Board."

The police board, it is granted that a Republican will be appointed to succeed McClave. It is also taken for granted that whoever he is, or whatever his politics may be, he must be a man who will do the bidding of the Mayor and carry out the program for the Mayor.

The wicked Gibbs could have the place, it was said, if he would desert the Police Board faction and join forces with the Mayor. Straight ticket Republicans, but his friends declare he is not wicked enough to desert them. Gen. Michael Kerwin and Frank Raymond are also named.

Brynes had a long conference with Corporation Counsel Clark in the latter's office this morning, and after the meeting he called on Mayor Gilroy and had a brief talk with him.

"It's a fine day, and I am feeling well," said Mayor Gilroy when questioned on the subject of his visit.

MUST LET "BEN HUR" ALONE.

A Perpetual Injunction Issued Against Edgar S. Werner.

Judge Lacombe, in the United States Circuit Court, today issued a perpetual injunction restraining Edgar S. Werner from publishing extracts from or otherwise infringing the copyright of Gen. Lew Wallace's novel, "Ben Hur, a Tale of the Christ."

The court further holds that Werner has violated the copyright by publishing the account of "The Christ," "The Genius of the Beautiful," and "The King of the Jews," and he is ordered to discontinue said publications.

In his answer to the complaint in the case, Werner said that he did not know that Gen. Wallace was the author of "Ben Hur," and that he had been told that it was the work of a man named "Ben Hur."

GIRL HANGED HERSELF.

Her Recent Lover Arrested and Jailed in Texas.

SHERMAN, Tex., July 11.—Miss Addie Harden, sixteen years old, committed suicide by hanging herself to a tree six miles east of here. She had been in love with a young man by the name of Bailey, and her last written message to her mother indicated that he had killed her lover. Her body was found yesterday.

In one of her letters she said: "Tell your people to take warning from me. Don't place your affections on a green tree. I love him. He lives at 131 and his life was not worth living, for his love I could not win."

WORKMAN GOT LOCKED IN.

When He Descended on a Rope a Policeman Arrested Him.

Policeman Adams, of the Macdougall street station, last evening saw a man descending on a rope from one of the upper stories of the building 409 Broadway, occupied by a man named Weinberger.

Policeman Adams arrested a man, who said he was Julius Furber, a street worker, and that he lived at 131 and his life was not worth living, for his love I could not win.
